

Harvest Time is Safety Time

While tending your crops this season, take a moment to ensure your safety when working with heavy equipment.

CHECK for power line clearance when planning new construction or moving heavy equipment – combines, grain augers, pickers, bailers and front loaders.

SURVEY work areas for overhead power lines and utility poles - especially during harvest seasons.

AVOID dangerous situations. Contact Southern Pioneer Electric with questions at 800-670-4381.
